NOTICE

The ex-students or those who have back papers and are appearing in I/III/V Term exams December 2017 must note that syllabus is revised on periodical basis every year. Hence they are advised to acquaint themselves with the latest revised syllabi in the paper which they have to take their examination. The questions will be asked from the course content and Reading Material of the revised syllabi and not the syllabus which they may have studied during the course of their study.
